MOTION TO ESTABLISH FINES,
FISCAL YEAR END 2021

Now comes the Town of Portsmouth for the purpose of calculating the lien amount fiscal year ending 2021 and moves this Court for an Order setting fines due in this matter as of June 30, 2021. The purpose of the Motion is to set the amount for fiscal reasons and to give the Defendant the opportunity to rectify and stop the ongoing fines if action has been taken and not reported to the Court or Town. As grounds the Town states that Defendant was found guilty on November 18, 2020 of two counts contained in the Complaint. The matter was continued to December 16, 2020 for the purpose of allowing the Defendant time to appeal or take remedial action. On December 16, 2020 this Court imposed a fine of $100 dollars per day on counts 1 and counts 2 combined plus cost on each count. As of June 30, 2022, the total number of days will be 562, for a total fine due of $56,200.00. Defendant has refused to take remedial action and Defendant did not appeal.

WHEREFORE: The Town of Portsmouth respectfully requests that Judgment for $56,200.00 enter for fines owed plus $100 in Court for a total of $56,300.00 to be perfected as a lien on the real estate owned by Christopher and Debra Burnett, located at 415 Sea Meadow Drive, Portsmouth RI as of June 30, 2022 and ongoing fines continue to run as ordered.
